

GRATIFYING RESULTS

AT Y. W. C. A. HOME

Seventy Girls Cared For in Whole-some Surroundings and Good Influences.

OAKWOOD MEMORIAL PLANS

Dr. Esenwein Lectures on Construction of the Modern Novel—Professor C. Alphonso Smith to Speak Here on Life of O. Henry.

Gratifying results have been achieved by the Young Women's Christian Association from the boarding home, which was recently opened at 193 West Cary Street. During February seventy girls were cared for, while the records this month will show an increase in the number of residents. All of them were pleased with the home, which has received high praise.

The building is a large, commodious structure, thoroughly modern and up-to-date, and can accommodate fifty girls. It is designed to meet the needs of the self-supporting young women of Richmond, and extend to them the hand of Christian fellowship. Preference is given to girls working on low or moderate salaries, but they are required to be members of the Y. W. C. A.

Parlors and recreation rooms, where the guests may entertain their friends in the evenings help to provide the real homelike atmosphere. Moreover, all the girls have the privilege of sharing in the general advantages of the central building.

The charges for board vary according to location of rooms, but all the privileges are shared alike by each resident, irrespective of the amount of board she pays, which is from $2.50 to $5 per week.

OAKWOOD ASSOCIATION

WORKING FOR BLUES' BAZAAR

Saturday, May 8, has been selected as Memorial Day by the Oakwood Memorial Association. There was a large attendance of the membership of the association Thursday afternoon at St. John's Church schoolrooms. Plans for the annual observance of Memorial Day were discussed, and the date selected as a convenient time when all can participate in the memorial exercises.

After this business the chair was given to Mrs. C. W. Massie, who has been appointed to represent both of the Oakwood memorial societies at the Blues' Bazaar on Tuesday, April 20, which has been designated as Oakwood Day.

All members were urged to do all in their power to make this day memorable. The Oakwood Juniors will have charge of the tea room, with Miss Laura Atkinson as chairman. The Dixie booth will be in charge of Mesdames Woodfin, Hughes, Hillings and Haverfield.

The committee on fruits, flowers and cakes consists of Mesdames Drancher, Cheatwood, Talley and Haaker, Ice-cream, Mesdames Schurmeier, Riddick, Clark and Brothers, Sandwiches, Mesdames New, Grasswitt, Ridenour and Smith.

These committees will appreciate the assistance of their friends and the public in making Oakwood Day at the bazaar a success.

DR. ESENWEIN LECTURES ON

CONSTRUCTION OF THE NOVEL

One of the most interesting events of the past week was the delightful informal literary evening of which Mrs. Sally Nelson Robins, of 1001 Floyd Avenue, was hostess. The guests were invited for 8:30 o'clock, when Dr. J. B. Esenwein made an address on "The Construction of the Novel." Dr. Esenwein began by stating that the English-speaking novel had about 200 years old, and this form of literature, like all great movements, soon became world-wide, spreading rapidly to Germany, France and Russia, respectively. The speaker went on to say that the plot of a novel was really the "path of a soul," and there are three kinds of novels—romantic, realistic and idealistic. These are also subdivided under the head of period, manner and psychological, which George Eliot's "Romola" is the best concrete example of all these minor divisions, and Dr. Esenwein considers it one of the best novels of the world. He also took upon Mr. Gilbert Parker's "Right of Way" as one of the best types of modern literary technique, and considered Amelia Rivers' "Hidden House" a great piece. This was the last appearance of the speaker during his present visit to Richmond, and as usual, his departure is the cause of much regret. Among those present were some of the best-known literary people of the city, including Mrs. J. Arthur Smith, Mrs. W. W. D. Sales and Miss J. E. L. Smith, of the University of Virginia. Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Dr. Esenwein is a well-known writer, and his book "The Construction of the Novel" is a masterpiece of literary criticism. He is a native of New York, and has spent much of his life in the study of literature. His lectures are always well attended, and his audiences are always highly appreciative of his knowledge and his ability to make his subjects interesting and understandable.

Titled Italian Is Recent Addition to Capital's Diplomatic Colony

MRS. D. E. WING
WASH.-D.C.

The Marchioness Taccoli

The marchioness is the wife of the new first secretary to the royal Italian embassy in Washington. She has but recently arrived at the capital, and is now engaged in becoming acquainted with the people who make foreign diplomatic society. Her gowns and jewels are said to be magnificent, and she has been seen at the few social functions she has attended. The Taccolis have established themselves in an apartment at fashionable Stoneleigh Court, and their two young children will probably attend some private school.

eral days in Huntington, W. Va., last week.

Frank Priest spent the week-end at Rapidan with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Priest.

Mrs. William R. Lillard, who has been spending some time in Richmond as the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. G. Robertson, has returned home.

Mrs. E. M. Averill was a visitor to Washington last week.

Miss Julia Goodwin, of Gordonsville, was the guest of Miss Ethel Wambersale at "Charlton" last week.

Edward Price, of the University of Virginia, was the week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Holladay.

Miss Fay Levy, who has been visiting for some time in Washington, returned home last week.

William C. Graham and Carter Walker were visitors to Charlottesville, Va., last week.

Henry C. Reese, formerly of Orange, but who is now living in Lexington, spent a few days here last week.

Eustace F. Golsen, of Somerset, spent several days in Baltimore last week.

Robert Bullman, of Culpeper, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Henry E. Grant, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sales and little granddaughter, Virginia Hull, returned from Durham, W. Va., last week, and are now stopping at the Coleman House.

Misses Sallie and Nan Clark were hostesses at a delightful house party last week at their home, "Cleveland."

Some of the guests were Miss Fannie Carpenter, Messrs. William A. Carpenter, John F. Carter, Philip Massey and John Williams, of "Red Hill," and John Massey, of Charlottesville.

Leslie Gray, of New York, with his daughter, Miss Allen, and Leslie, Jr., arrived in Orange last week and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson at "Walnut Hills."

August Wambersale was a visitor to Charlottesville last week.

Mrs. James Flewellyn, of Barboursville, who has been visiting her parents,

Mr. and Mrs. John Wambersale, at "Charlton," returned home a few days ago.

Mrs. Lawrence Ricketts, who has been on a visit to Culpeper, returned home a few days ago.

E. M. Averill, of Gordonsville, was a recent visitor to Orange, and was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Elliot DeJarnett.

Judge John Rutherford, of Culpeper, spent several days in Orange last week.

Reed Willis, Jr., spent last Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Reed Willis, in Louisa.

Misses Fannie and Lilla Bradbury entertained informally, but most delightfully, on Thursday night. Some of the guests were Misses Susie Halsey and Celeste Williams and Julia Goodwin, from Gordonsville; Messrs. Roy Carter, Ben Roberts and Maurice Stratton, and Tom Sampson, from Gordonsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson entertained a few of their friends at a most attractive dinner party at their hospitable home, "Walnut Hills," on Wednesday night. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Virgilus Shackelford, Mr. and Mrs. Lathin Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Barton Mason, Miss Sallie Price and Carroll Slaughter.

The Matinee Bridge Club met with Mrs. W. W. Smith, on Thursday afternoon.

The Louisa Bridge Club held its regular meeting on Friday evening in Louisa Hotel parlors, and Mrs. S. S. Griffith was hostess. The women's prize, a mahogany tea tray, was won by Miss Elizabeth Flannigan. The men's prize, a brass smoking set, was won by Judge F. W. Sims. Mrs. Frank Hoxley, of Richmond, assisted Mrs. Griffith in receiving.

Miss Ellen H. Kent, who has been spending several weeks with Chief Justice and Mrs. Edward White in Washington, returned to her home here today.

Mrs. John Goss has returned to Charlottesville after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Frank L. Woolfolk here.

Robert Crawford, of New York, is visiting his cousin, Misses Daisy and Mollie Crawford here.

Mrs. S. H. Flannigan, Jr., who has been spending the winter with her mother in Salem, returned to Louisa on Saturday.

Mrs. Belle Wilson, of Keyaville, and Messrs. Lynn and Hunter Chiles, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Isa P. Chiles, here.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORWOOD, VA., March 27.—Mrs. W. J. Heath and Miss Alice Lemmon spent Saturday in Richmond.

Miss Mamie Golladay and Sigh Golladay, of Buffalo, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roberts on Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Cabell returned to her home here on Friday, after spending the winter in New York and Big Stone Gap. She was accompanied home by Mayo Cabell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young arrived here on Tuesday from their bridal trip.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FREDERICKSBURG, VA., March 27.—The First District convention of the State Teachers' Association opened at the Fredericksburg Normal School on Thursday night, with A. B. Chandler, Jr., vice-president of the State Teachers' Association, presiding. A. B. Chandler, Jr., had charge of the arrangement of the very interesting and instructive program, and E. F. Hirsch, head, superintendent of the Fredericksburg schools, was chairman of the committee for the entertainment of the guests. About 200 teachers arrived on Thursday afternoon, a large number of whom came on the Commodore Maury, which brought, free of charge, all teachers attending from the Rappahannock Valley. Among the prominent educators who addressed the convention were Professor Charles G. Maphis, professor of education at the University of Virginia; Algar Woolfolk, president of the State Teachers' Association; Jackson Davis, State superintendent of education; W. H. Heck, department of education, University of Virginia; Joseph W. Kinghorn, United States Department of Agriculture; President E. H. Russell, of Fredericksburg State Normal School.

On Friday, evening a delightful reception was given to the visitors by the State Normal School, under the direction of the household arts department.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MILLER SCHOOL, VA., March 27.—Rev. Mr. Wildman, of Hillsboro, Va., preached here on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the Waver Literary Society had a very inspiring meeting. The new officers were installed, and President-Elect R. J. Price made an inaugural address. The meeting was concluded with a series of readings entitled "Echoes of the Past," dealing with the past history of the Miller School, by the following students: O. B. Flannagan, Lucian H. Brown, V. N. Stratton and F. Trevillian. The Longley Literary Society has an honored guest.

James Stuart, of Annapolis, paid the school a visit this week.

E. G. Via has resigned his position here to accept a government position in the navy at Norfolk, Va. He will leave within the next few days. He has been succeeded by Arthur M. McCabe, of Richmond, who is a graduate of V. P. I.

The Samuel Miller District Sunday School convention will meet at Mt. Ed Church on Thursday, April 15. All Sunday school workers and scholars are urged to be present. The second quarterly conference will meet at Trinity on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MILLER SCHOOL, VA., March 27.—Rev. Mr. Wildman, of Hillsboro, Va., preached here on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the Waver Literary Society had a very inspiring meeting. The new officers were installed, and President-Elect R. J. Price made an inaugural address. The meeting was concluded with a series of readings entitled "Echoes of the Past," dealing with the past history of the Miller School, by the following students: O. B. Flannagan, Lucian H. Brown, V. N. Stratton and F. Trevillian. The Longley Literary Society has an honored guest.

James Stuart, of Annapolis, paid the school a visit this week.

E. G. Via has resigned his position here to accept a government position in the navy at Norfolk, Va. He will leave within the next few days. He has been succeeded by Arthur M. McCabe, of Richmond, who is a graduate of V. P. I.

The Samuel Miller District Sunday School convention will meet at Mt. Ed Church on Thursday, April 15. All Sunday school workers and scholars are urged to be present. The second quarterly conference will meet at Trinity on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MILLER SCHOOL, VA., March 27.—Rev. Mr. Wildman, of Hillsboro, Va., preached here on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the Waver Literary Society had a very inspiring meeting. The new officers were installed, and President-Elect R. J. Price made an inaugural address. The meeting was concluded with a series of readings entitled "Echoes of the Past," dealing with the past history of the Miller School, by the following students: O. B. Flannagan, Lucian H. Brown, V. N. Stratton and F. Trevillian. The Longley Literary Society has an honored guest.

James Stuart, of Annapolis, paid the school a visit this week.

E. G. Via has resigned his position here to accept a government position in the navy at Norfolk, Va. He will leave within the next few days. He has been succeeded by Arthur M. McCabe, of Richmond, who is a graduate of V. P. I.

The Samuel Miller District Sunday School convention will meet at Mt. Ed Church on Thursday, April 15. All Sunday school workers and scholars are urged to be present. The second quarterly conference will meet at Trinity on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MILLER SCHOOL, VA., March 27.—Rev. Mr. Wildman, of Hillsboro, Va., preached here on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the Waver Literary Society had a very inspiring meeting. The new officers were installed, and President-Elect R. J. Price made an inaugural address. The meeting was concluded with a series of readings entitled "Echoes of the Past," dealing with the past history of the Miller School, by the following students: O. B. Flannagan, Lucian H. Brown, V. N. Stratton and F. Trevillian. The Longley Literary Society has an honored guest.

James Stuart, of Annapolis, paid the school a visit this week.

E. G. Via has resigned his position here to accept a government position in the navy at Norfolk, Va. He will leave within the next few days. He has been succeeded by Arthur M. McCabe, of Richmond, who is a graduate of V. P. I.

The Samuel Miller District Sunday School convention will meet at Mt. Ed Church on Thursday, April 15. All Sunday school workers and scholars are urged to be present. The second quarterly conference will meet at Trinity on Saturday and Sunday, April 16 and 17.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MILLER SCHOOL, VA., March 27.—Rev. Mr. Wildman, of Hillsboro, Va., preached here on Sunday evening.

On Saturday evening the Waver Literary Society had a very inspiring meeting. The new officers were installed, and President-Elect R. J. Price made an inaugural address. The meeting was concluded with a series of readings entitled "Echoes of the Past," dealing with the past history of the Miller School, by the following students: O. B. Flannagan, Lucian H. Brown, V. N. Stratton and F. Trevillian. The Longley Literary Society has an honored guest.

James Stuart, of Annapolis, paid the school a visit this week.

E. G. Via has resigned his position